Teaching & Research Support @ Library

Teaching Support

Course Readings @ Library and Course Reserves

- Course Readings @ Library enables course instructors to create, maintain, evaluate, and share course resource lists easily.
- Instructors may also place recommended course materials and course reserve requests through the system.

<https://www.library.ln.edu.hk/en/learn/teach/course-readings>

Instructors can add course materials to the Course Reserves via the Course Readings @ Library or by submitting request forms at:

<https://www.library.ln.edu.hk/en/use/reserves>

Tailor-Made Library Workshops

The Library is pleased to collaborate with Faculty staff to offer tailor-made workshops to develop students' course-specific research and learning skills. To request a class-embedded Library workshop, please submit request forms at <https://www.library.ln.edu.hk/en/learn/workshop/tailor>.

Research Support

Digital Commons @ Lingnan

Digital Commons @ Lingnan is developed by the Library to collect and preserve the full-text of scholarship and creative works of our Lingnan community. It also acts as the publishing arm of the University to publish scholarly journals. <https://commons.ln.edu.hk>

Lingnan Scholars

- A scholarly portal to capture all research-related information including research outputs, grants, projects, awards, and the impact of these scholarly activities produced by our renowned scholars.
- It serves as the gateway to support the University's mission to promote excellent research, to explore Lingnan's cutting-edge scholarly works via open access to the research outputs, and to foster collaboration with the wider community across all disciplines.
